

Pension Commission election record

Company

Contract number

The Pension Commission is made up of employer representatives designated by the employer and an equal number of employee representatives. The latter are elected by secret ballot. The candidates gaining the most votes in the first round of voting are deemed to be elected.

The members are elected for an indefinite period. The pension commission is self-constituting. Pension committees with up-to-date contact details are eligible to vote in the Board of Trustees elections. The affiliated company is responsible for updating the contact details. Further information on the pension commission is available at www.allianz.ch/bvg-documents.
