Unit-linked insurance plan for children

Children don't just need affection, they also deserve a solid savings plan.

Allianz

A solid savings plan.

A sound financial cushion eases the transition to adult life and is always welcome – because children don't just need affection, they also deserve a solid savings plan.

What's this type of insurance for?

- Want to give your child financial flexibility?
- Are you a grandparent looking to give your grandchild a lasting gift?
- Want to give your godchild a real surprise one day?

Give your little ones a headstart – start saving on their behalf right now with guaranteed achievement of goals.

Look at what you could achieve.

Successful saving: Whether it's for turning 18, learning to drive, education or a foreign trip – a financial helping hand enables the beneficiary to make plans for the future.

Security: The savings capital is guaranteed. Should the adult who is paying the premiums die before the maturity date, Allianz Suisse will step in and pay the premiums for the rest of the term.

You remain in charge: when the plan matures, the policyholder decides who receives the capital.

Foresight: investing in an insurance plan for children is the ideal way to ensure targeted saving for the future from an early age.

Six key advantages of a unit-linked insurance plan for children.

1

Early start:

You can gift the insurance plan for children to mark the birth of the child.

2

Scope for customization:

You decide the level of capital insured, investment strategy and term in accordance with your wishes and the likely needs of the child.

3

Flexibility:

You decide your investment strategy when you take out the plan. During the term, you're free to change strategic direction by switching.

4

Start-up capital:

By starting early, an impressive sum will have been built up by the time the plan matures thanks to regular premium payments.

5

Continuity:

Premium exemption in the event of the adult's death ensures the continuation of insurance cover.

6

Choose the date:

When you take out the plan, payout can be set for any time between the child's 16th and 30th birthdays. When the plan matures, the policyholder decides who will receive the capital.

Recommended add-ons.

To give you extra peace of mind, you can include exemption from premium payments should you become incapacitated due to illness or accident.
